Social Studies/ Weekly Reader This week we will be learning about our world Vocabulary Words: continents, oceans

Vocabulary

With our Language Arts series, the students are exposed to high frequency and robust vocabulary words. Vocabulary is critical to reading success because it supports comprehension and communication.

High Frequency Words for this week are: sweat, bought, touch, knee, clear

Robust Vocabulary Words for this week are: journeyed, frail, stomped, sipped, entertain, except, carefree, screeching

Quick Tip: To expose your child to these words, one suggestion may include placing word cards around the house and having the student read and define the words as they find them.

In our literacy centers, we place the words on index cards with the definitions on the back. The students read the cards and work with partners to become more familiar with the words.

Writing: (Writing complete sentences)

We will write paragraphs about various pictures. Writing

Trait: (Ideas) Conventions (using the correct grammar, punctuation, and spelling). We will also work on describing. The students will also work on using effective word choices in their writing—such as rhyming words and colorful words to clarify description and revise word choices.

Bullying Contract: I promise I will not bully others. I promise I will not hurt others through my words or my actions. I promise to: Be kind. Be safe. Be ready to learn!

Read Aloud Charts

"The Drum" (describing how we listen for a purpose)

Students will discuss what they enjoyed most about the poem.

"New Notebook" – Students will think about what is happening in the poem and the feeling they get from listening to it.

Listening Center

Stories: "Annie's Gifts" by Angela Medearats

Genre: Realistic Fiction

While listening to these stories, the students will learn new vocabulary words which include: stomped, sipped, entertain, carefree

The students will also orally discuss beginning, middle and end of the story & author's message. They will also learn about story structure.
